MARKETPLACE MINISTRIES

NMSI's Expert in Marketplace Ministry (name withheld for security) has developed viable small businesses in the Greater Middle-east which provide greater sustainability for the persecuted church. NMSI's Marketplace Ministries expert currently directs business initiatives among Muslims in North America providing relevant Gospel witness to otherwise "unreached peoples" living among us.

"Loving Mondays" and "Take this job and live it!" are group or event challenges for Christian professional groups seeking to leverage their skills and networks for Kingdom Advancement via NMSI.
